

Please allow consumers a choice--corporate monopolization of traditional radiospace breeds lack of diversity/lowest common denominator broadcasting--great for corporate profits, reduces costs by reducing diversity of listener choices--XM is a choice consumers make and pay for, should be allowed full spectrum of services--lack of choice promotes subpar programming--satellite radio should be allowed to be fully competitive, raising the bar for all providers that are privileged to lease the airspace/bandwidth that belongs to us all.